THARAKA PU

The visitors Mrs Schanz and her husband Mathias arrived in Kenya on the 2nd of August 2011.

They stayed at Izaac Walton Inn Embu where they were booked.

They set off for the journey to Tharaka PU in the morning of 3rd August 2011. They arrived at Plan offices at about 11.00 hrs. They were received by the acting Program Unit Manager Mohammed Ali who briefed them about Plan Tharaka operations.

After the brief introduction to Tharaka Program Unit staff members, the visitors took off for Karocho where Charity and her family live.

The first stop was at Kariini Primary School where Charity goes to school. The visitors were received at the school by the head teacher, Paul Maingi, the school management committee and parents.

The visitors were taken round the school and were shown some of the projects that the school together with Plan had undertaken. The projects include, construction of ECCD classrooms and provision of tables and chairs for the children, Ventilated improved pit latrines, provision of play and art materials and awareness trainings whereby the school management committee and parents were beneficiaries.

The visitors had the opportunity to hand over a gift of a water tank that they bought for the school. The water tank will provide safe drinking water to the pupils of this school.

The visitors proceeded to Charity's home where they were welcomed by Charity, family members and the community.
